Raj Kumar S

Abstract

Sun plays very important role in health. The planets that are indicating sixth cusp should give a person health issues. It is equally true the planets that contradictory sixth cusp should relieve the person from illness. This implies of a person need to get sickness the planet aligned to six the cusp would always give health issues and contradictory planet should always save him. This should be supported by the Dasa and transit chart.

Keywords: Sun, role of sun in health, core health issues

To understand the facts of the reality we need to examine Natal charts to for the clarity and understanding. The forecast of the charts would give the person enough heads up and could act as a preventive measure.

In modern world, after contracting health issues they reach the Doctor for assistance instead of proactively saving themselves before contracting the health issues is observed in prevalent of major population.

In actually general significators of 12 cusp will show sun, Mercury, ketu would be primary signficator; rahu as second signficator, guru as fourth signficators as third none was present.

Analyzing by the traditional methodology I could say the wrong diseases but in actuals would be different. Actually, Sun, Ketu and Mercury are in the star of Rahu. Rahu is present in the 6th cusp. By normal analysis Rahu would cause illness. The fact is Sun, Ketu and Mercury would cause more health issue with allergic reaction in her body. This means Guru by 5th aspect would see the 6th cusp so Rahu impact is reduced is predicted by traditional astrology. Actually Guru would give different health issues at slow pace.

Current Dasa

Guru (till 18-Mar-2027) | Venus (29-Sep-2021) | Mars (13-Jan-2020) | Sun (08-Jan-2020)

Now based on the current dasa this lady suffering from serious illness of headaches and mental stress. At times she attempts suicide due to the pain she is suffering. This was confirmed through the transit chart and accepted by this lady.

In the above chart 7, you can observe the Sun is placed in the 6th cusp. Also from table Figure 4 & 5 Sun is the prime signficator for the health issue. This is duly supported by Dasa. Hence the person has health issue.

The same was confirmed by the person and it proved to be completely valid.

4. Conclusion

In reality the chart is as per the exact planetary alignments caused. There is always possibility of the charts that can go wrong due to the exact alignments in terms of precision such as. This can be compensated by bringing in the traditional methodology, chart correction and rectification of chart by correlating the precision with actual events.
